

Convert to a REAL ID driver license or identification card. Make sure you come prepared!

You will need a REAL ID, passport or other federally accepted document at airport security beginning October 1, 2020.

If you do not apply for a REAL ID, you will receive a federal non-compliant card, with the phrase "Federal Limits Apply."

Learn about the requirements for a federal compliant card at REALID.dmv.ca.gov.

DL 1400 (REV. 1/2019)

STOP!

California driver licenses and ID cards have changed.

The DMV now offers federal compliant REAL ID driver licenses and ID cards. You must visit a DMV field office to apply.

If you renew by mail or online, you will receive a Federal Non-Compliant card that displays the phrase "Federal Limits Apply." These cards cannot be used to board a domestic flight or enter secure federal facilities beginning October 1, 2020.

ATTENTION DRIVERS!

Do you want a REAL ID driver license or identification card?
Do you hold a commercial driver license?

If you want a REAL ID driver license or identification card or are renewing your commercial driver license, you must visit a DMV field office and bring:

- Proof of Identity (original or certified U.S. birth certificate, unexpired U.S. passport, employment authorization document, permanent resident card or foreign passport with a valid U.S. visa and approved I-94 form).
- Proof of Social Security Number (SSN card, W-2 or paystub with full SSN).
- Proof of California Residency (printed copy of a home utility bill, vehicle registration card, mortgage or lease agreement, bank account or property tax bill).
— REAL ID requires proof of 2 residency documents. (Beginning April 2019)

NOTE: A name change document, such as a certified marriage certificate or divorce decree, is required if the name on your identity document is different than the name on your application. Multiple name change documents are needed if your name has changed multiple times.

The full list of acceptable documents is available by visiting www.dmv.ca.gov or calling 1(800)777-0133.

 IMMEDIATE ATTENTION
 You will need a federal compliant card such as a passport, military ID or REAL ID to board an airplane or access some federal facilities beginning October 1, 2020. The DMV will start offering REAL ID driver licenses and ID cards on January 22, 2018. Learn more before you renew at www.dmv.ca.gov.

 Commercial Drivers: Document requirements for new and existing CDL cardholders changed effective May 10, 2017. Learn more at www.dmv.ca.gov.

This notice requires you to now renew at a DMV office. Go online to www.dmv.ca.gov to make an appointment and review payment options.

"To renew" your license, you are required to:

- Complete an application online at www.dmv.ca.gov.

"During your visit" at DMV, you are required to:

- Pay a renewal fee of $36
- Take a knowledge test.
- Take a vision test.
- Have your thumbprint and photo taken.

Important:

If a knowledge test is indicated above in "During your visit", be sure to study. Review the appropriate California Driver Handbook and take the practice tests available.

To allow enough time for testing, DMV will stop giving tests 30 minutes prior to closing.

DMV now offers computer-based testing in over 30 languages.

 Be sure to bring or wear your contacts or glasses if you need them for driving.
